A LITTLE NOTE FROM THE MAYOR

Welcome to 'The Friendliest Town on the Trail' for the 38th annual Appalachian Trail Days Festival! Since its debut in 1987, Trail Days has become one of the most anticipated events. Not only does the hiking community get excited about Trail Days, but locals, visitors, vendors, and business owners all look forward to sharing and commemorating the weekend.

Damascus eagerly awaits this gathering each year to continue to celebrate the Appalachian Trail and all the folks who love it. Trail Days takes months of planning! Many thanks to the Trail Days Committee, Town staff, Town officials, sponsors, vendors, volunteers, hikers, and all those who participate.

As you know, Damascus was hit hard by Hurricane Helene in September 2024. She may have destroyed buildings and belongings, but she did NOT shatter our strength, resilience, and perseverance! DAM Right, we are OK! DAM Straight, we are rebuilding! We are mighty DAM Strong! Cheers!

Much Love and Light, Katie Lamb
Mayor, Town of Damascus

DAMASCUS, VIRGINIA, TRAIL TOWN USA

We have some of the best outdoor recreation of the Southeast right in our backyard. There's an adventure for everyone here! The Appalachian Trail and Virginia Creeper Trail pass right through the heart of Damascus, along with several other long distance hiking, cycling, and motor routes. At the edge of town, Mount Rogers National Recreation Area stretches as far as the eye can see, across the highest peaks in the state, over high elevation mountain balds and spruce-fir forests, trout streams, and more than 500 miles of trails. Here you'll find the five highest peaks in Virginia, all at over 5,000 feet in elevation: Mount Rogers, Whitetop Mountain, Pine Mountain, Buzzard Rock, and Haw Orchard Mountain.

The trail town lifestyle in Damascus is adventurous and creative, yet relaxed. Stop and stay awhile in our vibrant downtown, where everyone is treated like a local. Take the time to explore all that Damascus has to offer. From the many trails, parks, and public lands, to our shops and restaurants downtown, there is an adventure for everyone here. It's the kind of place where you'll find an adventure of your very own - one that makes you return again and again. We cherish this lifestyle and we know you will too.

EVENT INFO

THE APPALACHIAN TRAIL DAYS FESTIVAL

Trail Days is the biggest event of the year in Damascus and the world's largest celebration of the Appalachian Trail and hiker culture! Each year in May, the town swells to an estimated 25,000 people for the festival. You can expect a grand reunion of thru-hikers past and present, over a hundred vendors of handmade goods and some of the best outdoor gear in the industry, a packed schedule of live music and events, and a large crowd of trail supporters and hiking enthusiasts. Trail Days is always the weekend after Mother's Day. The Town-wide Yard Sale is always the weekend before Trail Days. Trail Days is free to attend; there is a fee at Tent City.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- Find the Town Information Tent and First Aid Station by the Town Park Stage.
- Live Music: There are FREE concerts at the Town Park Stage all weekend. Bring your own lawn/camping chair or picnic blanket and stay awhile.
- Alcohol is prohibited in all public spaces. Attendees may drink responsibly in designated areas.
- ATM locations in town: App. Heritage Distillery, Bank of Damascus, Cowboys, Country Corner, and Food City.
- Ride Board: To request or offer a ride to or from Trail Days, post in the Trail Days Ride Board group on Facebook. The Damascus Trail Center will also have an in-person ride board to post offers and requests.
- Content Creators: Pick up your Trail Days media kit and talking points at the Town Info Tent!
- Share your Trail Days photos with us! Use hashtags #VisitDamascus, #TrailDays, and #TrailTownUSA or tag the Appalachian Trail Days Festival pages on Facebook and Instagram.

FREE EVENT SHUTTLE

- Trail Days Shuttle: The free shuttle bus is provided by People Inc. Use this shuttle to get around Trail Days! Shuttle stops are shown on the centerfold map and marked with yard signs around town.
- Shuttle Hours: are Thursday 1-5pm, Friday 10am-10pm, Saturday 10am-10pm, and Sunday 10am-5pm.
- Rules: Stay seated while the bus is moving. No open containers, no tobacco products, no smoking or vaping.

PARKING

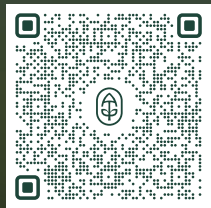

- Public parking cannot accommodate oversized vehicles, trailers, RVs, or campers during Trail Days. This includes Tent City, the Town Park, downtown, and the long-term lots.
- Please be considerate of our residents and do not park on private property unless you have permission.
- Paid parking is available by Tent City at 1011 S Shady Ave, Damascus VA 24236. $20 per car, CASH ONLY.
- The Wilson St lot by the Library is CLOSED to public parking. This area is reserved for vendor parking only.
- The town of Damascus is highly walk-able and bike-able. Once you find a place to park, we recommend that you travel by foot, bike, and/or shuttle as much as possible. If you are staying overnight, please try to leave your vehicle at your lodging.

By attending the Appalachian Trail Days Festival, you consent to the use of any photos, videos, recordings, or any other record of this event with you in it for any legitimate purpose, including use by the Town of Damascus, Virginia Tourism Corporation, and other organization partners.

FRIDAY MUSIC

ALPINE MOTEL

12:30-2:30 at the Town Park Stage

Alpine Motel is an Indie rock band from Abingdon, Virginia. Influenced by music both new and old, their sound consists of nostalgic soundscapes, vintage vibes, and wistful soundtracks for late night drives.

DANIEL BYRD'S BOOGIE MACHINE

3:00-5:00 at the Town Park Stage

Daniel Byrd (Folkfaces, Magus and the Movers) has called the blues his home for the better part of his life. Singer-songwriter, guitarist, harmonica player, and instrument tech, Byrd's passion and musical savvy make him hard to miss in the Tri-Cities. While his solo work lends more to soul-driven folk and Americana, his band Daniel Byrd's Boogie Machine is a heavier-hitting, funkier creation altogether.

Formerly "Boogie Collective," his Boogie Machine, featuring Jacob Tipton (Loose Leaves) on bass, and Kip Borodzick (ADC, Flame Azalea) on drums, is aptly billed as Groovy Blues and Electric Soul for the People. Daniel Byrd's Boogie Machine can be found playing local venues, such as Johnson City's Capone's and The Hideaway, Kingsport's Gypsy Circus Cider Company, and Model City Tap House. The band is currently working on new and inspired creative collaborations, as well as recording their first full-length album.

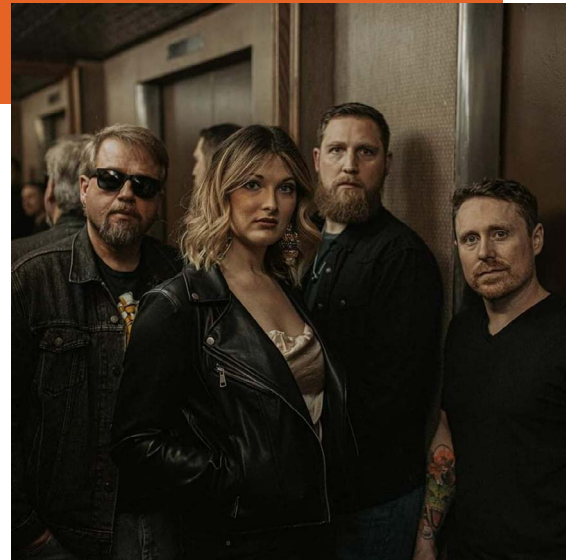

There are FREE concerts from Friday to Sunday at the stage in the middle of the Town Park. Bring your own lawn/camping chair or picnic blanket and stay awhile!

FRIDAY MUSIC

THE GREAT BIG HUG 5:30-7:30 at the Town Park Stage

The Great Big Hug is not just a band—they are a musical force blending the raw emotion of Southern Rock with an Americana Blues Fusion twist. Their debut album, I'll Leave the Light On, earned rave reviews, with comments such as “pitch-perfect blues delivered with heart and soul.” Whether it’s their soaring anthems, intimate ballads, or the undeniable chemistry of their performances, The Great Big Hug offers a transcendent musical experience, blending heartfelt storytelling with a sound that resonates across generations. With their unique genre blend and critically acclaimed artistry, The Great Big Hug is poised to become one of the defining acts in modern Southern Rock.

FRITZ & CO. 8:00-10:00 at the Town Park Stage

Fritz & Co is helmed by Abingdon based singer-songwriter Logan Fritz. Anchored by founding member of Holy Ghost Tent Revival Matt Martin on bass guitar and vocals, Wise County native McKenna Blevins on vocals and auxiliary percussion, and F&C founding drummer, Tyler Seagraves, returning to his spot on stage, the band brings the fun with genre-defying exciting original material and a few beloved covers.

Fritz & Co have been a staple at Bristol Rhythm & Roots Re-union, Appalachian Trail Days, The Howling, and have played extensively throughout the tri-cities and surrounding area. Logan and his band mates have opened for (most recently) The Wallflowers, Amythyst Kiah, Caroline Rose, Brent Cobb, The Wood Brothers, The Broadcast, and 49 Winchester.

There are FREE concerts from Friday to Sunday at the stage in the middle of the Town Park. Bring your own lawn/camping chair or picnic blanket and stay awhile!

SATURDAY MUSIC

FLORENCIA & THE FEELING

5:30-7:30 at the Town Park Stage

Johnson City, Tennessee based pop-funk fusion band Florencia & the Feeling delivers an amazing live show with their upbeat funky grooves, heartfelt songwriting, soaring 4 part harmonies, and all-around good vibes, culminating in a unique sound with hints of jazz, and Latin roots. The members of the band draw on a myriad of genres from their musical backgrounds – funk, jazz, Nu Soul, jam, pop, indie rock, roots, and more – to create a distinctive blend of musical magic.

Radio Bristol praised the band's "tight rhythmic jams and groovy guitar riffs," while the Bristol Herald Courier called their sound "happy music" and "joyful noise," and went on to say "their songs compel smiles on faces and dancing from feet."

THE ALABAMA HEATHENS

8:00-10:00 at the Town Park Stage

After co-headlining "Alabama Smokeshow" at Mars Music Hall in July of 2024, The Alabama Heathens have established themselves as one of the fastest-rising groups in North Alabama. The Heathens focus heavily on delivering genre-bending performances, wearing their influences on their sleeves. At the core, they are Southern Rock, focused on writing great tunes that captivate the listener's ear at a much deeper level than your ordinary chart topper.

The group consists of four members, all from different parts of Alabama: Dylan Johnson- Vocals, Rhythm Guitar (Priceville, AL) Jude Roberts- Lead Guitar (Huntsville, AL) Ethan Chandler- Drums (Florence, AL) William O'Rear- Bass (Athens, AL).

SUNDAY MUSIC

THE DEER RUN DRIFTERS

11:45-1:45 at the Town Park Stage

More than a decade later, The Deer Run Drifters are back. With a new lineup, a renewed sense of purpose, and fresh songs that embrace their traditional roots, the band is ready to rekindle their connection with fans and they're doubling down on the grit and authenticity that made them a standout name in Americana music.

The band's comeback isn't just a fleeting reunion—it's a full-fledged revival. They're kicking off 2025 with a string of shows, and—rumor has it—working on new music. Fans can expect the same soul-stirring lyrics, dynamic instrumentals, and storytelling charm, infused with the wisdom and growth of a decade away from the spotlight.

THE KODY NORRIS SHOW

2:30-3:30 at the Town Park Stage

This talented group, made up of frontman Kody Norris, Josiah Tyree, Mary Rachel Nalley-Norris, and Charlie Lowman, finds themselves with a growing legion of fans craving the comfort that comes from their retro look, but equally craving dynamic instrumentation and thought-provoking lyrics – all of which can be heard throughout their epic new album Rhinestone Revival.

"There is a whole chapter of country music that's just kind of faded away," The Kody Norris Show's frontman once said. "I believe The Kody Norris Show has been instrumental in bringing back some of that nostalgia and some of that classic look that country music and bluegrass music used to have."

There are FREE concerts from Friday to Sunday at the stage in the middle of the Town Park. Bring your own lawn/camping chair or picnic blanket and stay awhile!

4-5pm at the New York-New Jersey Trail Conference booth by the Library: Protect the AT While Hiking. Take a walk about 1.5 miles south on the AT and learn how you too can help protect our National Scenic Trail. There is so much you can do while hiking to protect the trail. Learn about trail maintenance and monitoring to be a guardian of the AT. Please wear solid hiking footwear and bring your own water and snacks.

5:30-7:30pm at the Town Park Stage: Live Music by The Great Big Hug! Not just a band, The Great Big Hug is a musical force blending the raw emotion of Southern Rock with an Americana Blues twist. Whether it's their soaring anthems, intimate ballads, or the undeniable chemistry of their performances, they offer a transcendent musical experience, blending heartfelt storytelling with a sound that resonates across generations.

6pm at Tent City - Billville Soup and Chili Contest. Hikers, please come and taste and vote for your favorite of each: soup and chili. Entries, please bring your own table so we can spread out. In the field by Billville camp.

7-10pm at One Way Ministries: Coffee House with LIVE band, dancing & food.

7-11pm at The Topsy Bear: Karaoke night! Weekly on Fridays.

7-7:50pm at the Rock School Auditorium: Beginners' Contra Dance Lesson. Warren & Terry Doyle (AT thru-hikers) will offer patient, fun instruction so you don't look too foolish at tonight's dance. Don't worry, you don't have to know your left foot from your right foot to contra dance.

8-11pm at the Rock School Auditorium: Annual Trail Days Contra Dance. Enjoy dancing to some mighty-fine musicians and with patient, clear dance calling by Warren & Terry Doyle, and it's FREE! For new dancers, please come to the beginner's lesson at 7pm. "Contra dancing is the most fun you can have standing up!" No partner or fancy duds needed. Please attend sober. contradancersdelight.com.

8-10pm at the Town Park Stage: Live Music by Fritz & Co! Fritz & Co is helmed by Abingdon based singer-songwriter Logan Fritz. Anchored by founding member of Holy Ghost Tent Revival Matt Martin on bass guitar and vocals, Wise County native McKenna Blevins on vocals and auxiliary percussion, and F&C founding drummer, Tyler Seagraves, returning to his spot on stage, the band brings the fun with genre-defying exciting original material and a few beloved covers.

EVENT SCHEDULE: SATURDAY

5:30-7:30pm at the Town Park Stage: Live Music by Florencia & The Feeling! Johnson City-based pop-funk fusion band, Florencia & the Feeling, delivers an amazing live show with their upbeat funky grooves, heartfelt songwriting, soaring 4-part harmonies, and all-around good vibes, culminating in a unique sound with hints of jazz, and Latin roots. Radio Bristol praised the band's "tight rhythmic jams and groovy guitar riffs," while the Bristol Herald Courier called their sound "happy music" and "joyful noise," and went on to say "their songs compel smiles on faces and dancing from feet."

5:30-6:45pm at the Old Mill Conference Room: AT-Inspired Devotions. Come and learn how the trail inspires a deeper understanding of faith. EmilysEscapades.com.

6-7:30pm at the Rock School Auditorium: Setting the Fastest Known Time on the Appalachian Trail: A Love Story between the runner and Chump Change. 2197 miles in 40 Days 18 Hours and 6 minutes - The fastest time ever on the Appalachian Trail. Come listen to the account of how history was made on the AT through pure equanimity, chaos, friendship and a whole lot of trail magic. Rascal and Candy Mama comedically and somewhat seriously retell the story of the 2024 record breaking hike that inspired millions around the world. Tara-Treks.com

7-11pm at The Tippy Bear: Live music by the Moonshine Outlaws for the Trail Days Tippy Bear Festival.

7-8:15pm at the Old Mill Conference Room: Life After Post-Trail Depression. Emily will discuss how the trail changed her, how she suffered after her hikes, and how she recovered. EmilysEscapades.com.

7pm at Tent City: Billville Useless Gear Contest with prizes. Be creative and enter or just come and watch the fun!

8-10pm at the Town Park Stage: Live Music by The Alabama Heathens! After co-headlining "Alabama Smokeshow" at Mars Music Hall in July of 2024, The Alabama Heathens have established themselves as one of the fastest-rising groups in North Alabama. The Heathens focus heavily on delivering genre-bending performances, weaving their influences on their sleeves. At the core, they are Southern Rock, focused on writing great tunes that captivate the listener's ear at a much deeper level than your ordinary chart topper.

8-9:30pm at the Rock School Auditorium: 23 Ways to Drink in Life on the Appalachian Trail. In this documentary by Maddie Zickel, 23 traditions, hallmarks, and milestones that many hikers experience are discussed as we follow one hiker on her journey northbound. Many hikers are interviewed both formally and informally throughout, giving the viewer a sense of what's different and similar for each person's hike.

EVENT SCHEDULE: SUNDAY

11:45-1:45pm at the Town Park Stage: Live Music by The Deer Run Drifters! More than a decade later, The Deer Run Drifters are back. With a new lineup, a renewed sense of purpose, and fresh songs that embrace their traditional roots, the band is rekindling their connection with fans and doubling down on the grit and authenticity that made them a standout name in Americana music. They're kicking off 2025 with a string of shows, and—rumor has it—working on new music. Fans can expect the same soul-stirring lyrics, dynamic instrumentals, and storytelling charm, infused with the wisdom and growth of a decade away from the spotlight.

12pm at the Mosaics By Rose booth in the Town Park: Stained Glass Raffle, valued at $600. Raffle tickets for sale all weekend, $5 each or 5 for $20. Half of the proceeds will be donated to the ATC Resiliency Fund.

12:30- 1:30pm at the Rock School Auditorium: Altered on the Appalachian Trail. Join Mike Rayder as he discusses his new book about his 1973 AT thru-hike and how the trail changed his life and the gifts he received from his journey.

1pm at the Damascus Trail Center: In My Boots: Book Talk and Signing with Amanda "Tamarack" Jaros, author of In My Boots: A Memoir of Five Million Steps Along the Appalachian Trail, a coming-of-age tale just released in February 2025 from Black Rose Writing. In 1999, Amanda embarked on a trek of the Appalachian Trail, wondering who she is and how she fits in the world, and leaving behind a childhood with a volatile and unstable father. After a physically and emotionally taxing journey, Amanda uncovered who she can be - herself.

1:30pm at One Way Ministries: Free Shuttles North and Southbound leave for Erwin and Bland - sign up at One Way Ministries to reserve your spot.

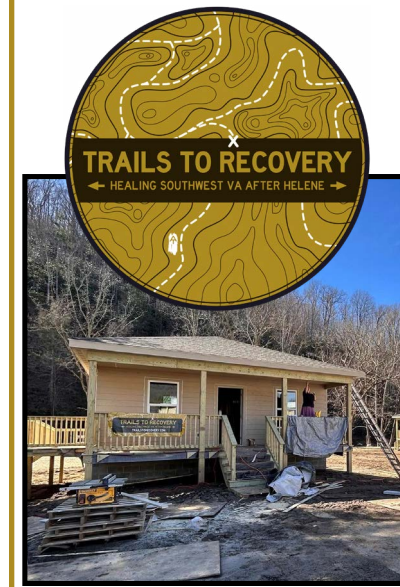

2-3:45pm at the Rock School Auditorium: My 57 y.o. Love Affair with the AT. Come be regaled by Warren Doyle, member of the AT Hall of Fame, who has attended all the Trail Days. His AT hiking exploits speak for themselves. Be prepared to be entertained, amused, agitated, enlightened and/or pushed out of your comfort zone (just like the trail does to its pilgrims). The question of "What motivates someone to walk the entire trail 18 times?" might be answered by the end of this program.

2:30-3:30 at the Town Park Stage: Live Music by The Kody Norris Show! This talented group, made up of frontman Kody Norris, Josiah Tyree, Mary Rachel Nalley-Norris, and Charlie Lowman, finds themselves with a growing legion of fans craving the comfort that comes from their retro look, but equally craving dynamic instrumentation and thought-provoking lyrics – all of which can be heard throughout their epic new album Rhinestone Revival. "There is a whole chapter of country music that's just kind of faded away," The Kody Norris Show's frontman once said. "I believe The Kody Norris Show has been instrumental in bringing back some of that nostalgia and classic look that country music and bluegrass music used to have.

6-9pm at The Tippy Bear: Live music on Sunday night!

6pm: Tent City closes on Sunday at 6pm. If you try to stay late, you will be asked to leave the premises immediately. See you next year!

The schedule is subject to change. To see an updated schedule, visit www.VisitDamascus.org/TrailDays.

TRAILS TO RECOVERY

Helping Southwest Virginia Rebuild after Helene

Trails to Recovery is a new local nonprofit dedicated to rebuilding after the devastation caused by Hurricane Helene. 100% of donations go directly to residential home restoration, business recovery, and Virginia Creeper Trail revitalization in Washington County. Trails to Recovery has a fundraising goal of four million dollars to rebuild the affected communities: Alvarado, Damascus, Green Cove, Konnarock, Taylors Valley, and Whitetop.

With the help of volunteers from groups like Impact Missions and Mennonite Disaster Service, Trails to Recovery is working to rebuild eight new homes and repair or partially rebuild eighty more, 88 total, to help affected residents in Damascus and the surrounding area.
